Reviews

*This publication will never be straightforward to get going on looking at but really fun to see. This can be for all those who statte that there had not been a worth looking at. You wont really feel monotony at at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about should you request me).

Original publisher: Washington, DC : National Aeronautics and Space Administration, Office of Inspector General, 2000 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)642839665 Subject: Government contractors -- United States -- Auditing. Excerpt: . . . Corporation may have inappropriately exported controlled technologies to foreign entities in support of the ISS and Space Shuttle External Tank programs without obtaining proper export licenses. Boeing. Boeing Missiles and Space Division has potentially committed export violations as defined by the EAR. Specifically, Boeing shipped controlled technologies to foreign entities without obtaining export licenses. The Missile and Space Divisions Export Compliance Manager informed us that Division personnel inadvertently shipped berthing mechanisms for ISS components to foreign entities. The EAR, Part 736. 2, states: You may not, without a license or license exception, export any item subject to the EAR to another country or re-export any items of U. S. -origin if each of the following is true: (i) The item is controlled for a reason indicated in the applicable Export Control Classification Number, and (ii) Export to the country of destination requires a license for the control reason as indicated on the Country Chart at part 738 of the EAR. During the course of this audit, Boeing Missiles and Space Division made a voluntary disclosure of the potential export violations to the Commerce Departments Office of Export Enforcement. Lockheed-Martin. Lockheed-Martins Michoud Space Systems may have violated the terms of its export license the State Department granted to Lockheed under the ITAR. The license permitted Lockheed-Martin to ship specific quantities of aluminum alloy materials that met specific monetary thresholds to a German contractor. These exports were effected in support of the Space Shuttle External Tank Contract. The materials were shipped to the German...
