Not illustrated. 1844 Excerpt: .will fall more naturally to be repeated when we come to relate the history of the next sederunt--was read, and instruments were again taken thereon. This done, the moderator did wisely encourage his brethren in a speech to this effect: All who are present know how this assembly was indicted, and what power we allow to our sovereign in 1 Journal. matters ecclesiastic: But though we have acknowledged the power of christian kings for convening assemblies, and their power in them, yet that must not derogate from Christ s right, for he hath given warrant to convocate assemblies whether magistrates consent or not: Therefore, seeing we perceive his grace my lord commissioner to be zealous of his royal master s commands, have not we as good reason to be zealous toward our Lord, and to maintain the liberties and privileges of his kingdom? You all know that the work in hand hath had many difficulties, and yet hitherto the Lord hath helped and borne us through them all; therefore it becometh not us to be discouraged at our being deprived of human authority, but rather that ought to be a powerful motive to us to double our courage in answering the end for which we are convened. 2 And having so said, he desired that if any other of the reverend or honourable members pleased, they might speak a word for the encouragement of their brethren, as God should put it in their hearts. Whereupon Mr....
