Why work for someone else when you can call your own shots, pursue your dreams, and find success on your terms by starting your own business So many people end up bored with their jobs, stuck in the corporate grind, never following their true passions. As wildly successful young entrepreneur Cameron Johnson shows, you dont have to live that way. Weve entered a new age of entrepreneurship, with the Web making it easier than ever to start and run your own company. As Johnsons remarkable story reveals, the entrepreneurial way of life is a great way to make sure you love what you do -- and it offers the potential to achieve extraordinary success by following your gut instincts and going for what you really want. What about the risks Dont you need lots of money Dont most start-ups fail Johnson shares his essential secrets to entrepreneurial success that show you how he got into the life at very low risk, and, with very little money, took an idea that excited him and ran with it, achieving great success and satisfaction with businesses he loved. He didnt have an MBA; he didnt even have a college degree. But he had learned the simple yet vital secrets he reveals. Cameron Johnson is a seriously happy entrepreneur who started his first business when he was nine with 50 and a home computer. Before hed turned twenty-one hed started twelve successful businesses and was offered 10 million in venture capital to grow his hot Web company CertificateSwap. com -- praised by Entrepreneur magazine as one of the Web businesses helping the tech industry get its groove back -- even bigger. He has never taken out a loan or racked...
