----- The Committee recommends total appropriations of 32, 793, 323, 000 for the Department of Homeland Security for fiscal year 2007, 715, 353, 000 more than the budget request. Of this amount, 31, 730, 000 is for discretionary programs. The Presidents fiscal year 2007 budget for the Department of Homeland Security is built upon a proposal to increase fees to generate an additional 1, 230, 000, 000 in collections to offset Federal funding required for aviation security. This proposal to increase the aviation security fees charged to air travelers allows the President to claim a 6-percent increase in homeland security spending over fiscal year 2006. Absent the fee proposal, this increase falls to 1 percent. This bill does not include the Presidents fee increase proposal. Within the limitations on spending for this bill, the Committee recommends an allocation of resources for fiscal year 2007 which continues to focus on priorities established for the current year. Securing the Nations Borders. --The Department of...
