He bent eagerly over the cold white hand which she held out to him, but it was some moments before he could speak. Oh, mother, he said at last, why are you here? I told you in my note, Marcus, that yesterday was the eleventh of June. But you will come back with me, he said, to your son s house, will you not? To Castletown? No, not yet! And where can you stop here? Not in one of those graves, Marcus; you need not look at them so curiously. I am not a vampire yet, not quite; but come, you were always a dutiful son, you shall see your mother s palace; in its apartments, spacious as they are, we can talk,...
