Excerpt: . . . 11 This reversal reflects the priority we have given to the charitable sector. Although the IRS budget as a whole increased only one-half percent in FY 2005, the Exempt Organizations budget increased 13. 8 percent, and the Exempt Organizations exam-ination budget increased 21 percent. In FY 04, we added 70 new agents to conduct exempt organizations examinations, as well as additional employees to begin implementing our plans for a more flexible approach to enforcement. This years budget supports additional staffing to continue our plans. We established two new offices to enhance our ability to identify and re-solve compliance issues. The first, our new EO Compliance Unit, will help us inter-act with a larger number of exempt organizations by reviewing Forms 990, cor-responding with organizations to resolve inconsistencies and errors, and conducting correspondence audits. The second new office, the Financial Investigations Unit, will focus on in-depth analysis of our most complex and significant cases to identify civil tax issues as well as potential fraud and terrorist-financing referrals, and will serve as a strike force when we need to move quickly. These units will be aided by two new groups and additional staffing. The first group is the Data Analysis Unit, established in 2004, which uses combinations of data to better select cases for examination. A second newly-funded group will iden-tify and follow up with selected Form 990 filers in the first years of their operations, bridging the gap between what an applicant..
